1906.

Z 66) In passing orders on the Education Memorandum Government decided that a portion of the amount required for meeting the additional expenditure on the expansion of primary education should be met by the levy of an education cess by the Local Boards and Municipal Councils.

H The Local Boards and Village Panchayets Regulation has already been amended in this direction. It is now proposed to amend the Municipal Regulation so as to empower Municipal Councils to levy an education cess of two annas in the rupee in the City Municipalities and one anna in the rupee in other Municipalities on taxes levied under clauses (i) and (x) of Section 59 of the Regulation.

The Bill has been agreed to by the Dewan and the Members of Council.

S I R,

' With reference to your No.L.1098 dated 26th August requesting to furnish information as to what the incidence of taxation upon poorer classes will be if an educational cess of 2 annas per rupee is newly introduced, I have the honor to forward herewith a statement showing the taxes on buildings and lands in the Bangalore City and the incidence of taxation when the educational cess is levied.

There are 1365 buildings which have not been taxed as they are exempt on account of their rental value being less than Rs.16/- per year. There is no tax levied on trades and professions in the City.

I beg to add that the incidence of taxation with reference to poorer class cannot be estimated unless a census is taken of such poorer classes on clear basis as to how to distinguish them from others.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The ~~several~~⁴ schemes outlined in their order on ^{the} Education Memorandum involve considerable additional expenditure on education which ~~it is considered~~ cannot be met from the existing resources. Government have therefore proposed that a ~~major~~ portion of the amount required for meeting the additional expenditure consequent on the reforms should be met from fresh -- taxation. As one of the means of securing this they have ~~directed~~^{decided} that the Local Boards and Municipal Councils be empowered to levy an education cess. The necessary amendment has been ~~already~~ made in the Local Boards and Village Panchayats Regulation. It is now proposed to amend the Municipal Regulation also so as to empower Municipal Councils to levy an education cess of two annas in the rupee in the City Municipalities and ^{one} ~~1~~ anna in the rupee in other Municipalities on ~~large~~ taxes - levied under clauses (i) and (x) of Sec- 59. ~~Hence the present Bill~~
